with George Vierhus

"GENERATION GAP"– That particular expression has been bandied about and widely over-used recently.

It has become sort of a handy gadget on which to hang anything that one does not understand about young people.

Which is plenty.

Obviously there always has been (and we hope there always will be) some sort of "gap" between various age groups. It would be an extremely silly world, if the young and the old thought, acted and reacted in the same manner.

Members of the older generation (no matter in what era) have always shaken their collective heads over some of the more unusual antics of the younger people. "Sure don't know what the younger generation is coming to" has been used in a variety of ways by all races, nationalities, creeds and colors and in every language for centuries.

In our opinion, it is quite natural that differences in ages bring about differences in viewpoints.

That's not any new philosophy by any manner of means.

ON THE OTHER HAND small groups, relatively speaking, of young people apparently throughout the land have taken upon themselves the chore of accentuating the negative.

Or something like that.

If we think back far enough and hard enough, we can recall our college days. There were "rebels" then just as they are now.

But they weren't quite as obvious or as articulate as they are today. Maybe there were just as many but one couldn't spot 'em as well.

And, of course, it is entirely possible that there is a different interpretation today as to what is considered good taste.

But our personal "generation gap" seems to be showing.

Or had you noticed?

BUT THERE IS A REASON why we have run so about this generation gap bit and all that.

Recently we spent some time meandering around a couple of campuses, including our own West Valley College in Campbell.

It was an eye-opening experience, in more ways than one.

Now we know there really is a GAP.

But we are not sure whether the gap is one generation or ten.

We found things somewhat different from what they were in our college days, years and years ago.

In many ways.

The beards and the long-hair on many of the present-day men students struck us as the biggest difference as far as the male of the specie was concerned. That is in comparison with our generation. (We can't seem to recall a single beard in that entire student body in our day.)

But actually one would be hard-pressed to claim that the men on the campus in our day were better dressed than are the men today.

By struggling with all the cob-webs down memory lane and all that sort of stuff, we sorta recall that ours was an era when dirty cords and denims were popular.

And the cords and denims did not win any prizes in what the young college man should wear division in those days any more than they would today.

But with the girls it is a different story.

ALL OF US ARE WELL aware of the mini-skirt style that is in vogue today. It is pretty difficult not to be.

And the mini-skirts abound on the campuses, as well you know.

Admittedly it does improve the scenery in some cases.

But not in others...

We imagine that conceivably it could be quite disconcerting for a professor in a lec-

Cardrooms in city could lose play

Cardrooms could be prohibited from operating within the city limits of Campbell, if the City Council decides to adopt the necessary legislation. And the first step for such Council action could be taken next Monday.

That was indicated this week when it was reported that City Attorney Joe Bonacina is scheduled to report at the City Council meeting next Monday, (Oct. 28) on the legal procedures that would be necessary to "outlaw" cardrooms in the city.

At the present time no such establishments are operating within the city limits, although a number of them have in the past. For example, the "Sand Box" on Railway Ave., now closed, had card games when it was known as Orchard City Billiards.

The possibility of adopting an ordinance prohibiting card games came to a head in recent weeks when an application was filed by Joe Freitas for a cardroom operation at 1719 S. Bascom where the Pocket Billiards formerly was located.

Under the present city regulations, only a business license and approval of the City Council is needed to operate a cardroom within the city limits.

An interim ordinance could be adopted to forestall the application that is pending for the property owned by Sal Campsi. Clair Wilson, local real estate agent, this week by letter recommended the issuance of a license to Freitas.

Campbell firm aids microwave

Pacific Radionics, Inc. formed by Grant O. Heninger, former manager of Microwave Associates (West) Inc., to develop and manufacture microwave test equipment is located at 581 Division St., in Campbell's industrial park.

According to Heninger, the microwave electronics industry needs appropriate equipment to test raw materials prior to the development as well as the mass production of microwave components.

Heninger said that one of the first products his company plans to produce is an instrument to measure the complex properties of dielectric materials utilized primarily in microwave and computer applications.

Attorney pay scale may go up

City Attorney Joe Bonacina, who resigned in June (effective Dec. 31) but in September was persuaded to continue in the office he has held since the city was incorporated in 1952, may get a 50% hike in pay. This would make him one of the highest paid part-time city attorneys in the state.

On the agenda for next Monday's City Council meeting will be discussion over what the job specifications should be for a part-time city attorney (as Bonacina has been for 16 years) and what the pay should be.

Bonacina has been receiving $800 per month as a retainer's fee. He has suggested that this fee be raised to $1200 per month retroactive to Oct. 1.

For the retainer fee the city attorney agrees to attend not more than six Council and Planning Commission meetings per month; keep the City Council informed as to all legislation affecting city government; render legal opinions when requested by the city manager or City Council; provide legal advice for city staff; prepare resolutions and ordinances and review and certify all city contracts, agreements, bonds and legal documents.

When assigned to other duties or services, such as defending the city, for attending more than six council and planning commission meetings, etc., he would be entitled to additional compensation.

City Manager Bob Stephens, on direction from the City Council, has drawn up a set of specifications in collaboration with Bonacina for the office of city attorney.

Research preliminary to the drafting of the "specs" revealed the duties and compensation of city attorneys in many localities throughout the state.

In only two instances of 30 cities investigated did the compensation for a part-time city attorney exceed $900. (Belmont, $900, and Menlo Park, $914).

COMMISSION OPENING

A vacancy now exists on the Parks and Recreation Commission because of the resignation of Mrs. Linda L. Neil, it was reported this week.

Those interested in serving on the commission are asked to submit their applications to the city hall.

TORIES VS WHIGS–The Campbell Chamber of Commerce prepares for a one day membership drive on Friday, Nov. 1. Two teams, "Tories" and the "Whigs" will battle for honors in the new-membership derby.

C of C plans one-day "blitz" for members

Campbell Chamber of Commerce members will stage their annual one-day "blitz" membership drive on Friday, Nov. 1, according to Ken Mantle, C of C prexy.

Last year during the "blitz" 66 new members were obtained, breaking all existing records.

Mantle hopes that record will be topped this year.

For the "blitz", the membership has been divided into two teams. Connie Russo heads the "Tories" and Bob Blonder is captain of the "Whigs".

To date 30 C of C members have signed up to participate in the one-day membership drive which will get underway at a kickoff breakfast at Luoto's at 8 a.m.

Teams will report in at 6 p.m. at the C of C office.

The winning team in the one-day membership drive will be given a valuable team prize. The top salesman for the day will also be awarded an all-expense paid overnight trip to Lake Tahoe.

Loop gets planners ok

Last Monday the Planning Commission officially endorsed the so-called "loop system" for the downtown Campbell area by recommending that a street plan-line be established for the northern portion of the loop.

So next Monday (Oct. 28) it will be the City Council's turn to get involved with the loop. The "loop" is part of the overall Specific Area II plan as recommended by the planning consultant in the recently completed "701" planning program.

In addition to the loop system, however, another phase of Specific Area II which has aroused controversy is the recommendation by the Planning Commission that the present M-1-S zoning (light industrial) of the Railway-Dillon-Gilman area be changed to multiples (R-3-S).

This proposed zone change has drawn the fire of the Chamber of Commerce. The C of C has asked that the M-1-S zone remain.

Members of the commission last Monday emphasized that they realized that without establishing a plan-line for the loop, it would be difficult to go ahead with civic center plans in the downtown area.

However, they also stipulated that the staff should report as soon as possible on the cost and feasibility of widening Campbell Ave. from Winchester to the railroad tracks.

Bill Wren, public works director, described the variations of the loop plans that had been considered. He explained that the costs ranged from $1 million upward for the various plans.

Because three commissioners were absent, most of the other items on the commission's agenda were continued to subsequent meetings.

However, the planners did approve a variance to allow a second story for the home of Denis Killen at 1286 Colleen Way.

Approved also was the prezoning of an area to C-1-S and C-2-S to be annexed on Winchester Blvd.

Mrs. Eva Archibald, owner of property at Winchester and Rincon, was granted a one-year extension for a use permit for a service station.

A station had been on the property but had been destroyed by fire in 1966.

The commission also approved the name-change of Cristich Lane to West Valley Drive and granted an extension for a convalescent hospital off Pollard Road.

Dinner fetes long time city clerk

More than 75 representatives of the Campbell and Santa Clara County business and professional world, both men and women, are expected to be present tonight (Oct. 23) when the Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club host a dinner in honor of Mrs. Dorothy Trevethan, Campbell city clerk since 1952.

The dinner, to be held at the Villa Felice, is held in recognition of National Business Women's Week. Mrs. Trevethan was originally appointed to the office in 1952 and was elected to the position in 1954. She has served in that capacity since that time. She has also been appointed for the second successive year to serve on the League of California Cities Committee on Elections.

Speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Janet J. McCoy, director of the Office of Tourism and Visitors Services for the state of California.

In addition to her city clerk duties, which include many night meetings, Mrs. Trevethan also serves as corresponding secretary for the Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club and is an active member of the City Clerks Association.

Mrs. Alma Fanning is serving as chairman for the evening affair which will start at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Evelyn Benson is co-chairman assisted by Mesdames Nadene Coles, Elsie Gressler and Carolyn Winter. Mrs. Verna L. Miller is president of the local group.

San Tomas Expressway final link opens to public Oct. 30

The County Public Works Department is putting the finishing touches on the last link of the $18.3 million San Tomas Expressway prior to a dedication of the roadway Oct. 30.

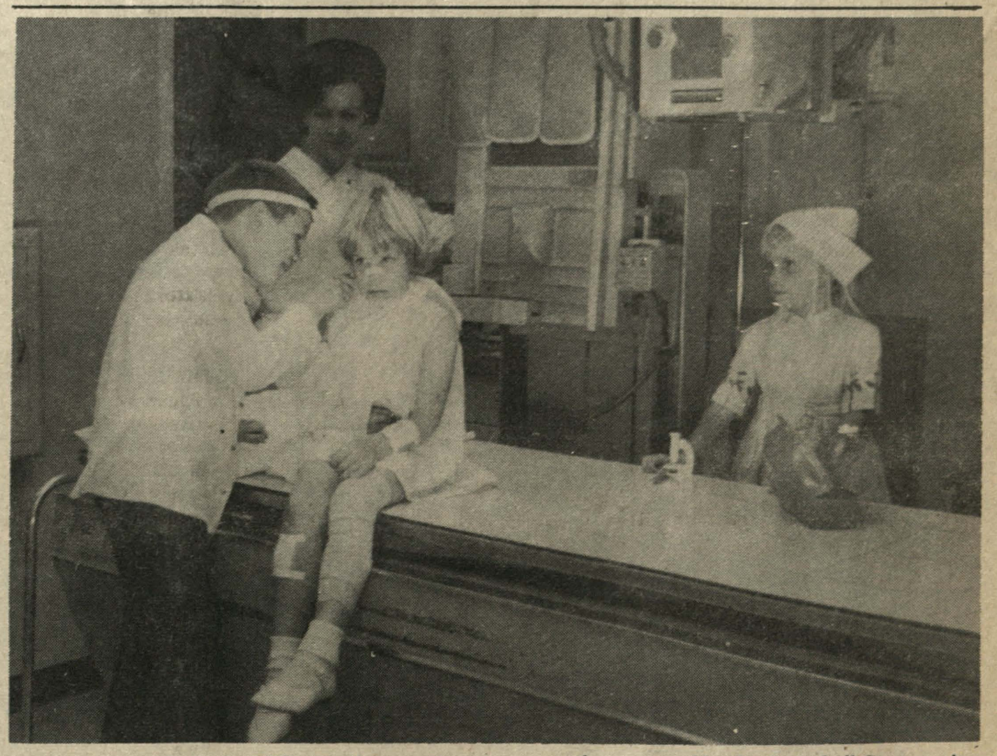
County officials will hold a ribbon cutting on that morning that will open the section from Central Expressway (Kifer Road) south through Santa Clara to Forbes Ave., one block north of Homestead Road.

This will make it possible for traffic to travel the full 7.64-mile length of the expressway from its beginning at the Highway 17 freeway and running north through Campbell, and parts of San Jose, and Santa Clara to the Bayshore Freeway. The roadway generally follows San Tomas Creek.

Members of the Santa Clara Women's Club have arranged with supervisor Ralph Mehrkens to take a "bike hike" along the new route.

THE KING CAME VISITING--Jeanette Fleming, seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fleming, 919 Hedegard Ave., brought her English bred Pekingese pups into The Press office for a visit. Jeanette holds Sr. Rob Roy of Rosecroft while "The King", the tiny blob to the left, hides his little head.

The two are blood brothers, born on Friday, Sept. 13, but where Sr. Rob is a standard size, little King turned out to be a miniature. Only mouse size when born, the Flemings have had to feed him with an eye dropper. The litter of four puppies are the offspring of Princess Shin-Shin and champion Chang Woo. Jeanette is claiming The King for her own.



FIRST AID FOR A CAUSE--"Dr." Steve Norment, son of Mrs. C. Carlyle Norment, left, is doing a bang-up job of administering emergency treatment to "patient" Amy Franks while on the right, "nurse" Sarah Franks, both daughters of Mrs. Raymond Franks, stands by with more equipment as they prepare for the Friday, Oct. 25 rummage sale sponsored by the Campbell Community Hospital Auxiliary. In the background, Mrs. C. Allgaier, nurse at the hospital, supervises the "operation". The sale will be held at the Orchard City Grange Hall, 109 N. First St., from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Editorial

Those propositions

There are 10 state measures facing the voters in the general election on Tuesday, Nov. 5.

As usual many of the propositions are of routine nature. Voter approval is merely needed to make needed changes in legislative procedure or for similar reasons.

But as always there are some measures on the ballot that arouse almost as much interest and controversy as the various candidates for offices.

Although the electorate within the city limits of Campbell will only vote on state measures and for candidates, the citizens of San Jose will cast ballots on a number of special issues.

Two of the state measures (Proposition 1A and Proposition 9) have to do with property taxes and are of vital concern to all of us.

PROPOSITION 9 is also known as "Watson amendment", named after the Los Angeles County assessor who instigated it.

PROPOSITION 9 would limit the property tax to 15% of actual market value and would provide that property tax money would be used for property-related services only.

The weakness of the proposition is that the measure does not specify where the money is to come from to offset this cut in property taxes. Other taxes would have to be increased obviously. The passage of "9" very definitely would have a chaotic effect on the state's financial structure, from the smallest district to the very top.

We, unhesitatingly, recommend a "NO" vote on Proposition 9.

PROPOSITION 1A is the legislature's answer to Proposition 9.

It provides state-financed property tax relief for homeowners. The state will give local governments funds equal to the loss of revenue resulting from the exemption specified in the measure.

We recommend a YES vote. It is in definite conflict with Proposition 9. If both measures pass, the one receiving the higher vote will take effect.

PROPOSITION 1 provides for the revision and recording of various sections of the state's cumbersome constitution. It is a continuation of the modernization action approved by the people two years ago.

We are heartily in accord with the proposal. We urge a YES vote on Proposition 1.

PROPOSITION 2 modifies the taxation procedure of publicly owned property.

In our opinion, the measure provides a fair solution to the vexing problem that now exists with one governmental agency owns property within another jurisdiction.

The measure provides a long-needed uniform formula to be applied in such cases.

We say vote YES.

PROPOSITION 3 provides for a bond issue of $250 million to provide state college, university and urban school facilities.

We feel that Proposition 3 is vital because, in our opinion, a state bond program is the only fair way to acquire the necessary facilities for the state colleges and universities.

We urge a YES vote.

PROPOSITION 4 authorizes the legislature to provide means by which the reporting and collecting of the state personal income tax is similar to that of the federal government.

As long as we have to have income taxes, both state and national, it makes sense to us to use the same procedure in both instances.

It will not make the state tax any easier to pay but it should make it easier to figure out.

We favor a YES vote.

PROPOSITION 5 authorizes the legislature to guarantee loans for the construction or improvement of any public or nonprofit hospital.

We suggest a YES vote.

PROPOSITION 6 authorizes the legislature to give a break taxwise on retirement programs for independent colleges and universities that are comparable to those of state-supported institutions.

We recommend a YES vote.

PROPOSITION 7 permits the legislature to allocate money from the general fund of the state to any county, or city to be used for local purposes as well as for state purposes.

We consider this a necessary step in the essential overall of the state's tax structure.

We recommend a YES vote.

PROPOSITION 8 allows counties and/or cities, with approval of the voters, to contract to share their state-collected sales tax and to use the revenues for any purpose its own revenues could be used.

We feel the measure will help solve some of the vexing fiscal problems brought about in some instances by shopping centers being located in fringe areas but which draw their sales from other localities.

We suggest a YES vote.

MORE ABOUT

But that really is not the point of this discourse.

We are roaming a bit.

ACTUALLY IT WAS NOT the modern-day mini-skirted coed that emphasized "the gap" we referred to some time back in this column.

What really impressed us (to use the term loosely) was the type of garb that many of the girls donned for campus wear.

The garb of the gals we saw rushing to and from classes ranged from what appeared to be pajamas, some cases to short-shorts in a few and slacks in others.

In between, of course, there was a scattering of dresses and skirts.

Now far be it from us to condemn this informality in college wearing apparel.

There are many things we think are far more important.

But we just cited it to illustrate that obviously a "gap" does exist.

That is, if you weren't aware of it already.

WE KNOW THIS WILL really date us but we can't recall in our day of ever attending classes with coeds who weren't attired in either skirts or dresses.

And we just know we would have remembered, if it had been otherwise.

Girl-watching then was just as popular as a non-credit course as it is today.

Besides one could keep up with it even after leaving the hallowed halls of learning.

BUT WE DON'T MEAN to sound facetious about the actions of the college kids today.

Some of the so-called "rebels" undoubtedly are sincere in their feelings and maybe feel that if they are unconventional in their manners, it will call attention to the real or imaginery problems they are rebelling against.

To be somewhat charitable, we suppose that could have been the reasoning behind the actions of Tommie Smith and John Carlos in the Olympic Games in Mexico City.

Yet the vast majority of college people today are clean-cut, law-abiding, intelligent, fresh-looking youthful citizens who will be a credit to themselves, their families and their country in the future.

And maybe even some of the "rebels" will turn out ok, too.

WE BLAME THE NEWS media for over-playing the actions of the rebels who, in our opinion, represent just a small portion of the college kids in school today.

Most of the young people have their feet on the ground and are not going to be swayed by the rebels' battle-cries.

For instance, we know of a Campbell gal who is a sophomore at Cal, who out of curiosity went to hear what the notorious Eldrige Cleaver had to say.

That she was unimpressed would be putting it mildly.

In a letter to her parents she wrote that Cleaver sounded like a total nincompoop or worse and that, in her opinion, offered nothing for the young people to grab onto.

Her letter substantiated our basic belief in the younger generation.

OUR OFFICE MAIL NAturally is at another periodical high point. The mimeograph machines have been working overtime grinding out the news (?) releases extolling the virtues of the various candidates.

We imagine about one-half of the mail that is carted by us daily from the post office deals with political issues and candidates.

It will come to a grinding halt on Nov. 5 and will begin again two years hence when the flood will be repeated.

We use just a smidgen of the stuff we receive and some of it we don't even read. Yet we always look forward to the avalanche that comes just prior to each election.

It really would be educational, if one had the time and energy to peruse all the stuff that comes in the mail pertaining to issues and candidates.

But some of it tends to be sensational...Such as the far-out headline we saw on one story in a Republican circular: "Is HHH Paying Nixon Hecklers?"

And, of course, the Democrats use similar tactics.

You might say the American people really have a ball at election time.

Then again you might not.

Depending on the results, of course, on election day.

County helps unemployed to get jobs

One hundred and 40 unemployed fathers have been enrolled through the County Welfare Department in the Work Incentive (WIN) Program, a new state job training effort.

This makes Santa Clara County the first one in the state to use the program, according to Frederick B. Gillette, County welfare director.

The San Jose Office of the State Department of Employment, the agency directing the program in this county, plans to start training 600 persons within the next ten months.

The program was established and funded under a new federal act, Public Law 90-248. This assigns to county welfare departments the duty of screening welfare recipients and selecting men who could benefit from job training and employment counseling.

Gillette reports that his staff started action shortly after the law became effective to arrange a procedure with the Department of Employment. He said that because of this the Welfare Department was the first one in the state to complete arrangements for the training and 140 men have been enrolled.

The law specifies that men to be eligible for the WIN program must be unemployed or employed only part time, must not be receiving Unemployment Insurance checks, and must be registered with the Department of Employment as available for jobs.

WHAT'S DOING?

OPEN HOUSE

I would like to invite all Campbell residents to attend an open house at our Campbell Business Office this Wednesday and Thursday evenings. When you get here, there will be tours, exhibits and displays to let you see how we go about serving the 40,000 Campbell accounts and the 20,000 South San Jose accounts the office handles. We will also have our large construction equipment on display in the parking lot to show you how we set telephone poles and repair damaged cables. Inside, we have refreshments and gifts for all our visitors.

By the way, the office is probably one of the most attractive telephone company business offices in the Bell System, too. In all, it promises to make a very interesting and enjoyable visit. I am sure you and your family won't want to miss it. That is this Wednesday and Thursday nights, 6-9 P.M. at the Pacific Telephone Business Office at the corner of East Hamilton and Leigh Avenues.

See you there!

Maybe you've been surprised to hear your Information operator answering lately in a new way—"Directory Assistance." And maybe you've wondered why the change. It's just this: "Directory Assistance" actually is a better description of her job, which is to help you find a number that isn't in your phone book. And here's a helpful hint: Jot down the number next time you have to call "Directory Assistance" for help. You'll have it handy when you want it, and save making two calls again when one will do.

I sure hope you've circled November 5 on your calendar. That's Election Day. Don't forget to vote.

Did you hear the one about the minister visiting in Campbell who decided to call another minister back home? Getting the operator on the line, he asked her to place his call. "Will this be station-to-station?" asked the operator. "No," said the reverend. "Parson-to-Parson."

Prospect Pulse

By Pat Hebard

Excitement filled the last moments of the Prospect-Camden Varsity Football game last Friday afternoon. The game ended in a heart-breaking tie of 18 to 18. Panther touchdowns were made by Kevin Barnes, Andy Guzman and Jim Grossett. Prospect did win in spirit although.

Class elections were held last week. Campbell Corners

By Barbara Handel

"We refuse to take defeat" was the cheer that was heard from Campbell's side of the field last Friday night when we played against Saratoga. Our varsity whipped Saratogas' 13-7. Andy Morris made our first touchdown that gave us a 7-0 halftime lead. Gary Tomasso made the winning touchdown during the fourth quarter.

Our defense, Dain Hines, Steve Stanford, Ron Wood, Dwight Kelsey, Tim McGuire, Grant Mayfield, Don Womack, Bob Marotti, Steve Dunlap and Mike Bates, did a great job holding Saratoga back. Tim McGuire did a fine job guarding one of Saratoga's biggest players.

Our offense also did a great job with Randy Fujishin, Mark Cunningham, Gary Tomasso, Mike Beeson, Dan Hanks and Andy Morris.

Our Frosh-Soph also brought home a victory with a score of 21-0. Steve Davis, Steve Cannady and Rich Wong made the three touchdowns.

Fine defensive work was shown by Jerry Fournier and good offensive plays by Steve Lobervich.

Along with the great teams we have, the team support is also good. The spirit at this game especially was exceptionally good. Along with Campbell, many students from Prospect, Branham, Blackford, Leigh, and Los Gatos came to watch the teams play.

Next week, we play the Camden Cougars. The Frosh-Soph play Thursday at 3:30 on Camden's field. The Varsity teams play Friday at 3:30 on Campbell's turf.

Last Friday, an all-school rally was held to get the spirit started for that night. The cheerleaders and song girls did a skit while the boys played the role of the cheerleaders and song girls. During the rally, the football players were given a "football" shaped cookie with their number on it. The coaches were presented with a cake that resembled a football.

Del Mar's Foreign Exchange student this year is Sukiko Minami. She is from Kagoshima Japan. While in the United States, she is staying with Evelyn Peyton and her family.

According to Sakiko Minami, American schools are quite different from those in her country. In her country students are required to take ten courses, none of which are chosen by the student. School starts at 8 and ends at 5.

When she returns to Japan she plans to finish her final year in high school and later enter a university.

Friday afternoon the Blackford Braves were victorious over the Del Mar Dons, 13-7, on the Dons' field.

Concluding last weeks' Twirp Week was the annual Twirp Dance. Music was provided by Fritz Rabyne. Pictures were taken on a broken down porch and all couples were invited to be married through the marrying judges. The marriages were legalized with a "hitchin' license and matching rings. All in all it was a fun filled night for all those who attended.

This Friday, Oct. 25 Del Mar will play Prospect High School on their field.

Six Del Mar students were named semi-finalists in the 1968-69 National Merit Scholarship Program. The students are Cheryl Riley, Kristy Surber, Tom Belick, Curtiss Sawyer, Dave Pearl and Andrew Resnick.

At home in Vancouver

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HOLLISTER

Mr. and Mrs. John Hubbard Hollister are now making their home in Vancouver, B.C. following their recent wedding held at the Cambrian Park Baptist Church. The new Mrs. Hollister is the former Jean Elaine Buckelew who attended Campbell school before moving to Fremont, California.

Jean chose a Venice lace gown fashioned over taffeta with an oval neckline, empire bodice and a sheath skirt trimmed in satin. An elbow length veil and a bouquet of pink roses, baby pink and white carnations, baby's breath with deep pink streamers, completed her ensemble.

Serving as maid of honor was the bride's half sister, Gayle Sartin who chose a royal blue rayon gown and carried a bouquet of pink daisies, pink and white baby carnations and baby's breath. In identical gowns were Julie Mecklenberg and Sally Standall in their roles as bridesmaids. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Franklin Buckelew, Jr. and the double ring ceremony was ready by the Rev. Edward Townsend.

The new Mrs. Hollister is the daughter of Buckelew, Jr. and Mrs.George T. Sartin, Jr. of San Jose. Mrs. Sartin wore a pink sheath dress with silk organza trim and pink accessories for her daughter's wedding.

Hollister is the son of Dr. John F. Hollister of Carmichael and Mrs. Clara Hollister of San Francisco. He is a graduate of Humboldt State College. His brother, William, served as best man with Jack Grass and Kip Skelton ushering.

Mrs. Hollister wore an avocado silk gown complimented with yellow roses for the occasion.

Following the reception held at 1384 Lundy Ave., San Jose, the young couple left for their wedding trip to Yosemite and Lake Alpine.

The dance will be sponsored by St. Lucy's Young Ladies Institute No. 204 with Mrs. Charles De Palmo and Mrs. Victor Horn serving as co-chairman.

Dance music will be provided by "The Aggregations" and refreshments will be served. Tickets will be on sale at the door or from any member of the Y.L.I. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes in various categories.

Assisting on the committee are Mesdames William Law, William Buchholtz, Jean Hawkins, William Chicoine and Wilbur Clark. Others working on the dance committee include Mesdames Daniel Sweeney, Irwin Pasternak, Daniel Barry, Gail Abbott and Miss Doris French.

A gala evening is being planned and it is hoped that everyone will turn up in costume and add to the fun.

I'M FOR MAX!

Senator Murphy says...

"I know Max Rafferty personally as a man of integrity, courage and intelligence. Some three million Californians demonstrated their vote of confidence for the job Max Rafferty has done in education for our state when they re-elected him as Superintendent of Public Instruction in 1966.

"He is concerned, as I am, how the world's greatest nation can be torn by riots, crime and irresponsibility by such a small percentage of our total population. Max Rafferty believes, as I do, that the freedom and strength of our nation did not just happen. Millions have been killed during the past 192 years in bringing about this strength and freedom we all enjoy. Max Rafferty will be a Senator who has the guts to stand up and speak out against that small number among us who seek to destroy our great heritage."

VOTE FOR RAFFERTY! U.S. SENATOR

Bucknall PTA sponsors "Spook Alley" Saturday

The cobwebs are forming in the corners of the Bucknall Elementary School's multi-use room, and the witches and goblins are wending their way back so that all will be in readiness for the third annual Spook Alley on Saturday, Oct. 26, from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Spook Alley started four years ago in the home of the current PTA president, Arland D. Hillyard. At that time, because of his interest in children, and also because there was nothing "special" in the Bucknall area for children at Halloween, he turned his garage into a spook alley. When children came trick or treating on Halloween they were told they had to go through spook alley before they were given a treat. Smaller children who were too frightened to go in waited patiently outside while their fathers braved the terrors of the unknown.

Teenagers, who were delighted with the idea, came back again and again with friends from all over the area. The response was so enthusiastic that the following year the idea was presented to the PTA to use—not so much as a money maker as "something for the kids".

By now it is so successful that everyone wants to be involved. Children who have gone on to junior and senior high school contact the PTA every fall asking if they can come in and help. And they do come – to make scenery, help set it up, and on the Big Day, don costumes as witches, goblins and ghosts and help with the haunting business.

When the last child has gone through, and the last treat has been given out, these same teenagers will stay to help take the alley down and carefully pack things away for the next year. And then the clean up begins and new ideas for a "better spook alley" are talked over and put on paper.

So, as it has for the past three years, Spook Alley will be open the Saturday before Halloween. Admission is 10 cents and each visitor receives a treat.

Working as co-chairman this year are Douglas Reinecke, Ellis Ruppert and Arland Hillyard. Bucknall is located at 4300 Bucknall Rd., San Jose.

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN--The witches and goblins are perched on the Gussie M. Baker school sign as a reminder that Halloween is almost here and the annual carnival will be held Saturday, Oct. 26.

GUSSIE M. BAKER

The witches, ghosts and goblins of the Gussie M. Baker Elementary school are practicing up on their haunting and witchcraft for their annual Halloween carnival which will be held on Saturday, Oct. 26, at the school grounds at 4845 Bucknall Rd.

Mrs. Richard Ward, chairman for the carnival, has announced that the event will occur between the hours of 11:30 and 3:30 with food and cold drinks for all.

Serving on the committee are Mesdames James Walton, Paul Spitsen, Peter Temby, Robert Phelps, Ronald Dunham, John Williams, Karl Taylor, Keith Hagerman and Darrell Hiles.

The carnival is being promoted by the Gussie M. Baker PTA to help equip the playgrounds of the school with much needed play and gym equipment. This equipment is needed to help further the physical fitness program of the school and all proceeds over $200 will be applied to this program. Costumes will be the thing of the day so come one come all at your "spooky" and "haunting" best.

Basic English class plans U.N. Day observance

The Basic English class, which is presently being held in Bennett Hall of the Congregational Church of Campbell, 400 W. Campbell, will observe United Nations Day Thursday, Oct. 24 with a special program which is open to the public.

Mrs. Ron Holm, teacher, has especially extended a warm invitation to all who might be able to attend the program, which will start at 9:30 a.m.

The students, who represent 15 countries, are preparing various representations of their various countries, and many are planning on wearing their native costumes. Girl Scouts

By Nan Warren

"On my honor, I will try: To do my duty to God and my country, To help other people at all times, To obey the Girl Scout Laws."

This is the Girl Scout Promise repeated by girls and adult leaders throughout the world. The ten relatively simple Girl Scout Laws are learned when a girl enters the Junior age level of Scouting. Even though the laws are simple, such as loyalty, trustworthy, courteousness, etc., they are fine laws by which anyone would benefit.

After a girl has attended four meetings with her troop, she gives her promise, be it Brownie Promise or Girl Scout Promise, at a ceremony called an "Investiture".

For an established Scout, this is a time of rededication. Junior Scout Troop 829, San Tomas School; Troop 1030 of Quito School; Troop 704, Bucknall School and Brownie Troop 609 also of Bucknall School plan Investiture ceremonies this month.

Pride in troop, self, community and the Girl Scout program is renewed by all. We are proud of our girls and the dedicated leaders who guide them throughout the year.

Social Security office offers special booklet

"The most popular booklet we've ever published is again available," John J. Cassidy, district manager of the San Jose Social Security District office, has announced.

The booklet, entitled "Your Social Security", explains in simple terms the four programs of retirement, survivors, disability and health insurance. It also explains how benefits are computed and when to apply.

Cassidy stated the basic idea of Social Security is a simple one: During working years, employees, their employers and self-employed people pay Social Security contributions which are pooled in special trust funds. When earnings stop or are reduced because the worker retires, dies, or becomes disabled, monthly cash benefits are paid to replace part of the earnings the family has lost.

"Since more than 9 out of 10 working people in the United States are now building protection for themselves and their families under Social Security, it is important that everyone investigate their rights under the program," Cassidy emphasized.

The booklet, numbered SSI-35, can be obtained free of charge by phoning the San Jose Office at 286-2525.

More Helpful Tips from PG&E:

"Clip and Save"

How to get caught with your heating bills down.

1. Weatherstrip. Weatherstripping around doors and windows plugs heat leaks and keeps cold air outside. A doorjamb may require a metal strip to take the constant friction of opening and closing. Loose windows may need a thick felt stripping.

2. Have your heating system checked now. Don't let the first cold snap catch you unprepared for winter. Call your furnace man. He'll make sure your furnace is in safe working order with your gas pilots operating.

3. Change filters, too. Most forced air furnaces have filters to trap dust. For maximum heat flow they should be replaced every six months. Clean dust and lint out of wall and floor heaters periodically, too.

4. Set your thermostat—and leave it. Frequent changes in room temperature settings mean a bigger heating bill. Agree on a healthy thermostat setting and leave it there. If Junior says he's cold, put a sweater on him.

5. Insulate. Insulate floors and ceilings and you'll cut heating costs up to 45%. Good insulation increases the value of your home—it often pays for itself in just a few seasons.

6. Close dampers and drapes. When not using your fireplace, close the damper. If you leave it open, heat escapes. Also, 16% of your heat can be lost through windows with open drapes.

Bigger bills, but lower rates. Your bigger winter bills are caused by more heating and lighting, more TV watching, more hot meals and more appliances in use.

But there have been six reductions in PG&E gas and electric rates in the past five years. So summer and winter, your PG&E service is a bigger family bargain than ever.

SERVICE WITH A SMILE--Betsy Zetz, a service representative for the Pacific Telephone Company, offices at 1500 Leigh Ave., San Jose, invites all Campbell residents to the "open house" planned for Wednesday and Thursday. Betsy, who resides at 761 N. Central Ave., has been with the telephone company for over two years.

Children in area need foster homes

Santa Clara County is experiencing a growing need for foster homes for infants and children of all ages. Some of these youngsters have been abused and mistreated and most have been neglected both physically and emotionally. They all have one thing in common - they all need the warmth, care, security and love of a family willing to open their hearts and homes to them.

Once the Juvenile Court has determined a child requires placement in a foster home, the problem of waiting begins. There simply are not enough foster homes available. During the past three months there have been as many as 60 children requiring foster home placement. Many of these youngsters are still waiting in the Children's Shelter or Juvenile Hall for a home.

Infants, family groups, teenagers--they are all waiting. Many Campbell homes may be opened if the need is known

For information, call Mrs. Patricia Shannon at the Juvenile Probation Department, 299-3088.

WORKING WOMEN

About 50 per cent of women in this country between the ages of 45 and 54 are employed outside the home.

County sirens to sound off

Sirens in Santa Clara County, part of the nationwide system for warning of an enemy attack or other disaster, will be tested at 11 a.m. on Friday, Oct. 25. The test will consist of a steady siren tone for one minute, a minute of silence, then a warbling tone or series of short blasts for another minute.

You would be warned of an actual enemy attack by a warbling siren or series of blasts continuing for three minutes. This signal would be notice that you should protect yourself. Refuge in a public fallout shelter or other plans you have formed should then be acted upon immediately.

Radios should be turned on for emergency information. In Santa Clara County Radio Stations KXRX, KEEN, and KLOK are emergency broadcast stations and are prepared to broadcast during a national emergency when other stations may shut down.

A steady tone for three minutes would be sounded if it becomes necessary to warn the public of other disasters. This signal means: Turn on your radio or television and listen to local stations for disaster information.

Sirens must be tested periodically to insure their readiness in an emergency. City and county officials in Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties have selected the last Friday in October, January, April and July for coordinated testing.

In Santa Clara County sirens and air horns will be tested in Campbell, Cupertino, Gilroy, Los Altos Hills, Los Gatos, Milpitas, Monte Sereno, Mt. View, Palo Alto, San Jose, Santa Clara, Sunnyvale, and in key locations in unincorporated areas. Stanford University, Moffett Field Naval Air Station, and the Community of Redwood Estates will test warning equipment at the same time.

Tieger (Sid) for a long time operated the "Market Basket", at 10th and E. Williams, San Jose, near San Jose State. He became well known to many college students and the store was an informal gathering spot and discussion center. Sid invites former college students in the area to drop in at their new store in Kirkwood Plaza.

Telephone office plans tours of new buildings

"If you like pretty girls, want to match wits with a mechanical mind, and are fascinated by the sound of your own voice, you'll enjoy yourself at our open house Wednesday and Thursday, 6 - 9 p.m.", announced Campbell Pacific Telephone manager Jerry Arca.

One of the company's newest business offices will celebrate its first birthday with open house at 1500 Leigh Ave., San Jose.

Shaped like a "square donut," according to Arca, "every office looks out upon the centrally located patio...and each one can be reached without going through a single door once you've entered the building."

The exterior is finished in rustic redwood sidings, and an olive tree is centered in the patio.

Besides a tour of the office, which is specially designed to provide a feeling of spaciousness, there will be several exhibits and coffee, cookies and punch.

The pretty girls Arca referred to will be conducting tours and will staff exhibits which include a tic-tac-toe game between guests and a computer-type switching machine, and telephones that play back the speaker's voice.

There will also be demonstrations of the general principles of the laser beam and microwaves, and their present and potential application in carrying telephone messages.

A staff of 60 handles accounts for some 63,000 customers among 12 prefixes in South San Jose, Campbell and San Martin.

The tour will also demonstrate how the new customer's request for a telephone is processed from the time it comes in until the unit is installed and part of a worldwide telephone network.

Grandparents face charges

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutter were held briefly Monday by Santa Clara County facilities and released without bail in their own recognizance on "kidnaping" charges filed by their former son-in-law, Larry Britton.

Hearing has been set in the Superior Court for Nov. 6 at 2 p.m.

The charges were filed after the Sutters had traveled to Idaho and picked up the grandchildren, Julie Lynn Britton, 7, and David Richard John Britton, 5. The youngsters had been taken from a bowling alley in the area last summer by Britton when the grandparents were taking care of them. The mother had been given custody of the children following the divorce.

Mrs. Dorothy M. Sutter has been an administrator in the Campbell Union School District for the last 16 years. She is principal of the Campbell Grammar School. Sutter is employed as a West Valley College coach.

Waitress job training course offered at W.V

Good jobs for waiters and waitresses are going begging in this area because of lack of trained personnel, but West Valley College is attempting to fill the breech.

The college's Food Services and Restaurant Management Training Program will again offer, for the third year in succession, its highly successful waiter -waitress training course.

This time, however, the course will be offered in the spanking new facilities at the Saratoga Campus, on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 9:30 p.m., beginning Nov. 12.

An actual dining room will be used, and students in the eight-week course will learn how to serve properly, according to Thomas A. Devins, coordinator of the Food Services and Restaurant management program.

Registration will be held at the first meeting of the class.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

On Friday, October 11 the House and Senate were struggling toward adjournment. But at 7:53 P.M. the House was forced to quit because only 188 members had answered a quorum call when 218 are required for the conduct of business.

Because our unpredictable system of legislating doesn't allow Members to plan ahead and make commitments in their districts, "private adjournments" always diminish the number present in the closing days of a session. Several years ago I decided to make no commitments until after adjournment because the last hours of a session frequently see the passage of the year's most vital legislation.

October 11 was a good example. One of the bills finally acted upon was the Supplemental Appropriation Bill of $446.7 million which included $46 million for the newly authorized Redwood Park Bill, so important to 10th Congressional District residents. This same bill included $55 million for expansion of the Food Stamp Plan to new counties and cities.

The bill also included $50 million for the New Home Ownership and Rental Aid Programs for the poor; $2 million to enforce the Open Housing Law enacted earlier this year; $1.5 million to initiate a Flood Insurance Program; $296 million for credit sales of arms overseas; and small amounts to implement the Trust in Lending Law, the National Water Commission, Juvenile Delinquency Laws, and the Natural Gas Pipe Line Safety Law.

On that same Friday, the Senate took final action on bills to make possession of LSD and other drugs a federal crime and to authorize federal control over dangerous radiation emissions from colored TV sets.

Other bills finally acted upon extended educational benefits of the GI Bill of Rights to Vietnam veterans. Another bill which went to the President was an omnibus measure to control water pollution and to bar discharge of sewage and oil from boats.

Though the $446.7 million Supplemental Appropriation Bill contained more items of social interest, it was by no means the major amount of money which was finally voted on that day by the Congress. Two other bills made up almost half of the year's total budget. First, the two houses agreed upon a compromise $1.75 billion Foreign Aid Appropriation--the smallest in history. Second was the adoption of a conference report providing $72 billion for the national defense. It was the lack of a quorum for passage of this gigantic amount which finally forced the House to adjourn.

In addition to major money bills, there are dozens of so-called legislative "cats and dogs" acted upon in the closing hours of a session. When everyone is anxious to get home and many are absent, some very poor bills can slide through the Congress and sometimes be enacted into law.

There is no question that the final days and the final hours of a legislative session are very important. Personally, I feel it is my obligation to be present on these days, doing the job I was elected to do.
